

As an Indiana resident, I am very concerned about the efforts of the Consumer Bankers Association to use the FCC to override state telemarketing regulations. I am against Petition 02-278 which would do this. Indiana has seen fit to regulate telemarketing as a local issue, it should not be overridden by special interest groups who seek to manipulate the state through the FCC. Please, uphold the rights of the citizens of states to regulate the issue as we see fit.